«Hunderttausend jaulende Höllenhunde, die MONOFONES sind wieder da!», würde Captain Haddock sagen. Und wie sie es sind! 14 Jahre und rund 200 Konzerte quer durch Europa hat das Höllentrio schon auf dem Bandbuckel und ist dabei keinen Deut leiser geworden. Auch nicht besser. Zum Glück nicht! Denn es ist genau diese Mischung aus Drei-Akkord-Garagerock der 60er-Jahre, Punk-Attitüde und Lo-Fi-Kitsch-Refrains, die den Charme von THE MONOFONES ausmacht.

Das zeigt auch die sechste Platte «Loud & Lousy», die 13 wilde und doch eingängige Tanznummern sowie zwei Kuschelrockhits vereint. Zur Freude von Captain Haddock kommt sogar ein heulender Hund vor.

« Hundred thousand howling hounds of hell, the MONOFONES are back! », as Captain Haddock would say. And how they are back! 14 years and 200 concerts all over Europe on their backs they haven't become any quieter. Nor better. Thank goodness! Because it's exactly this mixture of three-chord garage rock from the 60s, punk attitude and lo-fi kitsch choruses that makes THE MONOFONES so charming.

This is also evident on their sixth record «Loud & Lousy», which combines 13 wild yet catchy dance numbers and two cuddle rock hits. To Captain Haddock's delight, there is even a howling dog involved.
